Shot Fired to Scare
Gas Station Attendant;
Other Area Thefts

A house burglary in which loot valued at $907 was loaded into a vehicle which had been pulled in to the attached garage, and a service station holdup in which a shot was fired over the head of the attendant, were among 13 crimes reported to Quad-City area authorities during the week-end.

In another house burglary, the occupants reported that they drove into their driveway, where they saw a light go on in their home. The thief apparently fled through a window.

Furnishings, shotguns and tools with a total value of $907 were stolen in a burglary last night at the home of Dennis, 2411 Cardinal court, it was reported to police early today.

The burglars smashed a rear door glass to gain entrance and then were able to back a vehicle into an attached garage to load the loot through a side door.

The items taken included a 23-inch console TV set worth $200, a stereo set valued at $275, a tape recorder valued at $50, 40 record albums with a total value of $200, a $75 28-gauge shotgun, a $50 16-gauge shotgun, a $30 12-gauge shotgun and tools valued at $50.

GC Home Entered
The home of Mrs. Carrie Henson, 2649 Delmar avenue, was entered Thursday night by a burglar who was frightened when Mrs. Henson and her daughter, Joan, returned home about 9:30 p.m.

They noticed a light go off in a front bedroom as Miss Henson drove into the driveway. Mrs. Henson went to the front door to alert them, and Miss Henson entered the house through the rear door to telephone police from the kitchen. The intruder fled before police arrived.

Entrance was gained by breaking a front bedroom window. Nothing was taken from the house.

Whisky, vodka, cigars and cigarettes valued at $70 were stolen in a burglary Saturday night at the Horseshoe Lake Skating Club, it was reported to county authorities Sunday by Al Cattani. Window was broken to gain entrance.

A burglar pried open the front door to enter the Jenkins store on Bluff and Klein streets, Venice, early Saturday morning. Nothing is missing, and he is believed to have fled frightened away by a paper delivery man.

$10,860,583 Tax Bill For Area This Year

JOHN DOOHER
City Comptroller
John Dooher, 66,
Dies Suddenly

John J. Dooher, 66, of 2310 Grand avenue, city comptroller of Granite City for 19 years, was stricken while moving the front lawn at his home and was pronounced dead upon being taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital at 6:30 p.m. Friday.

Mr. Dooher collapsed while operating a power mower and was found in the yard by a neighbor, Dennis McMichael, 2313 Grand avenue.

McMichael had passed there several minutes earlier on the amount billed last year. The figure does not include railroad tax bills which are collected by the county treasurer's office. The total tax bill for the 1964 tax year, collected in 1965, was $10,860,583.

The new total tax extension for the area is $308,507 more than the amount billed last year. The figure does not include railroad tax bills which are collected by the county treasurer's office. The total tax bill for the 1964 tax year, collected in 1965, was $10,860,583.

Miss Hotz announced tax extension figures for the Quad-City townships of Granite City, Venice, Nameoki and Chouteau upon completion of tax books for the latter three townships.

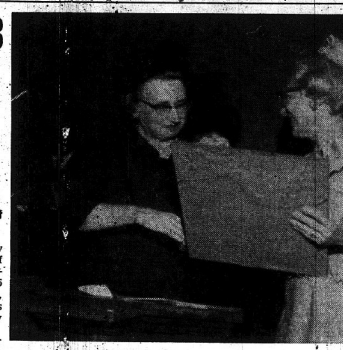

Books for Granite City township were completed a week ago and have been turned over to Granite City Treasurer E. R. "Pat" Rich.

The extensions are about a month later than last year since the clerk's office waited until April 1 to receive a tax rate for the East Side Levee & Sanitary district from St. Clair county.

The rate still was not available on that date and Miss Hotz announced the books were completed by using the levee district's 1964 rate of 45 cents per $100 valuation. The rate will be adjusted next year in accordance with any change made by St. Clair county officials when the 1965 district rate is finally extended at Belleville.

Venice Extension
Miss Hotz announced a Venice township tax extension of $2,600,907 to be collected this year by Frank Reidelberger jr., town tax collector, and an extension of $1,967,186 to be collected by Town Collector Gene Kotter of Nameoki township. The extension of $1,967,186 for Chouteau township has been collected by Chouteau Collector Charles Lewis.

Last week the county clerk's office announced a total tax bill of $6,438,526 for Granite City township, which brings to $10,860,583 the total extensions for all four townships for the 1965 tax year.

Illinois Mother of the Year Hundreds Congratulate Dr. Felicia Koch

A backlog of more than 100 telegrams was delivered to the local physician's home this morning, matching a similar number which arrived Saturday.

A general medical practitioner and the mother of six children, one with the Peace Corps in Ghana, East Africa, Dr. Koch accepted the Illinois Mother of the Year award from Mrs. George V. Malmgren of Chicago, Illinois Mother's Association state chairman. Approximately 100 guests attended.

In making the presentation, Mrs. Malmgren, told Dr. Koch, "wear this pin proudly, as you now represent every mother in the state."

The association chairman continued, "you symbolize all the devoted, self-sacrificing efforts, the patience, affection and understanding with which all good mothers are blessed."

"These attributes, together with the outstanding professional achievements in your professional and civic life, make you our unanimous choice as candidate for National Mother of the Year."

Response by Dr. Koch
Accepting the citation, Dr. Koch said, she hopes every Illinois mother will share in the joy-luck and was checking the "safety" when it went off.

The wounded man, who is left, it all happened, and I expect to be taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital by Johnson and continued "I feel this honor is charged with responsibility."

Dr. Koch said she is determined to increase her efforts and activities to develop a greater insight into the needs of humanity, and to activate the true meaning of a charity.

Dr. Koch will leave for New York City later this week to attend special worship services at St. Patrick's Cathedral at 4 p.m. Sunday and the "President's Reception" for all 90 state mothers in the Empire Room at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel the same evening. Mrs. Porter Brown, one of three United States women delegates to the Vatican Council, will address the assembly.

To See President
On Wednesday, May 4, Dr. Koch will travel to Washington, D. C., for the Star Spangled Award Dinner, when President Lyndon B. Johnson will announce the new "National Mother of the Year."

Ice Rink Plans
Approved, Bids
Sought May 24

In special meetings Thursday evening and Saturday morning, Granite City park officials approved plans for the ice skating rink and year-around recreation center voted by the public Dec. 18. Construction bids are being sought by 7 p.m. May 24.

The structure is to be situated in Wilson Park near a Benton street, Fehling road and Ohio avenue. The city is to be asked to consider installing spotlights near there.

Contractors may obtain detailed plans and specifications at the office of Architects Henry Gabriel and Sylvester Dugger. The city is to be expanded later if the need arises.

Parking space for 111 cars is included in the rink area plan. This is to be expanded later if the need arises.

The unusual open air structure will have provisions for possible use of movable transparent plastic screens around part of the skating rink, allowing air flow and visibility but preventing problems from blowing leaves and heavy winds.

Sound Equipment
Twin conduits for speaker and microphone wiring are included in the plans, which will allow for loudspeaker arrangements when the rink is in use as a theater, square-dance floor, meeting hall or other non-skating functions.

Special stereo speakers mounted at strategic points will provide sound for the structure, and there will be a console equipped for playing records and tapes. Additional mobile speakers are being made part of the facility to complement a movable stage being considered for events and functions requiring a platform.

The ice freezing mechanism is designed around two 150-horsepower 90-ton compressors, each considered to be individually adequate should the other break down.

The pipes underneath which to frost freezing brine or anti-freeze solution through the concrete are listed in alternate bids as either steel or wrought iron.

The park board Saturday approved a longwinded piping pattern and decided to include a platform for dumping of ice. Dumping will not be necessary under normal rink operations but is expected occasionally.

3-Cont Not Enough
Andrew Scott jr., 30, East St. Louis, was charged with disorderly conduct and resisted arrest at 9:15 a.m. Saturday at the McKinley Bridge toll plaza, where he allegedly attempted to pay three cents instead of 25 cents and later blocked a traffic lane with his auto.

McKinley Bridge Traffic Fatality Second in April

St. Louis, 27, Dies
After Truck-Auto
Sideswipe Last Night

A collision on McKinley Bridge at 9:30 p.m. Sunday proved fatal to James A. Simpson, 27, of 1800 North 18th street, St. Louis, and injured two other occupants of his 1950 pickup truck as well as the driver of an auto. It was the second McKinley Bridge fatality in 18 days.

Non-fatal Quad-City area traffic injuries during the weekend totaled 24, with 30 crashes occurring.

Venice police said Mr. Simpson was driving east and Elmer Bolinger, 532 Bend road, was driving west when the left side of the two vehicles sideswiped.

Their speed was indicated by skid marks showing that the truck continued on for 40 feet and the auto for 435 feet.

The vehicles had met at the west end of the main bridge superstructure, and police believe the truck then went out of control, ricocheting down the middle of the bridge against the superstructure. All three occupants of the truck jumped out, officers were told by Harold Robinson, 28, St. Louis, who landed on his back and escaped with cuts and bruises.

Mr. Simpson suffered severe head injuries and passed away at the hospital at 11 p.m. Sunday, slightly more than an hour after the accident. His remains were taken to an Altom, Mo., funeral home.

Franklin D. McGuire, 33, St. Louis, sustained a four-inch scalp laceration and was released after treatment. He and Mr. Simpson were taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital by ambulance.

Bolinger suffered an arm injury. No injury was listed for his wife, Ellie, a passenger in his car.

Both vehicles were towed to a garage.

An inquest will be conducted by Deputy Coroner Robert Thomas, and Bolinger is to be questioned today by the Venice city attorney.

Child, 6, Hit by Car
Dorothy Williams, six-year-old son of Mrs. Margaret Williams, whose address was listed as 1400 North 18th street, Madison, was struck by a car at 6:25 p.m. Saturday in the parking lot at Nameoki Village Shopping Center.

Police reported the boy was struck by a car driven by Robert N. Voss, 1914 First street, Madison, who told officers the boy ran in front of him from between two parked cars. Noud said his speed was zero as the boy was struck. The boy was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was treated for a concussion to the left knee.

Boy Runs Against Truck
James Fuller Jr., five, of 114 Dixon road, Venice, was shaken up and bruised at 1:30 p.m. Saturday in the truck of William Middlebrooks, 57, East St. Louis, on Circle drive in the Lee Wright Homes.

Middlebrooks told Venice police he had stopped at Circle drive and Russell street and was starting a right turn when two children started to run across the street. He halted his vehicle and the boy ran into it. He related.

He took him to St. Elizabeth Hospital for treatment and x-rays.

The youngster was treated for abrasions to the right leg and right side, and cuts and bruises about the left leg and right side of the head.

Three Hurt on McCabridge
Three persons were hurt at 5:45 a.m. Saturday in a McCabridge avenue-Edwardsville road crash involving the autos of Preston C. Foster, 25, of 2104 Washington street, Madison, Foster, 37, of 1421 Newwood drive.

New System Starts Today To Recruit Federal Workers

A new method starts today in the federal government's personnel recruiting and examining program. An Interagency Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners opened this morning in the Federal Office Building, 1520 Market street, St. Louis.

The St. Louis Interagency Board is one of 65 being established in metropolitan areas across the nation as the initial step in creation of a modern system of examining that will satisfy the manpower needs of federal managers and at the same time improve service to the job-seeking public.

During the coming year, the new board in St. Louis will replace top boards of examiners in the metropolitan area, some of which operated only on a part-time basis. It will begin serving Madison county agencies in 1967.

Members of the board will be top-level management officials of agencies within the area served by the board. A small group of these officials will serve as a board of directors to guide the board's program and ensure that it meets agencies' staffing needs.

The new Interagency board will be staffed by full-time, well-trained personnel. The key figure will be the executive officer who will have responsibility for carrying out the board's program. He will be assisted by a number of specialists of the St. Louis Civil Service Region, including an acting executive officer until a permanent officer is selected.

The new board will provide job information center where the public can obtain information about federal job opportunities.

As the system has operated in the past, an applicant may have been required to visit a number of boards or offices to get the information needed concerning federal employment opportunities.

The information center in the new IAB will provide one-stop up-to-date information on federal employment, counseling on job opportunities and qualifications, and assistance to graduates of each Office of Economic Opportunity programs as the Job Corps and the Neighborhood Youth Corps. The IAB, by making job information more easily accessible to the public, is both helping to improve quality of eligibles through increasing the number of applicants, and meeting the responsibility of extending the opportunity for the public to compete for jobs in the Federal Service.

The new board will be responsible for most Civil Service examining activities in eastern Missouri and after January 1967 will be responsible to Madison and St. Clair counties of Illinois.

Office hours will be from 8 to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday and from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturdays. Information on Government employment opportunities will also be available through the Civil Service Information clerk at post offices in larger communities located in the area of operation of the IAB activities will be borne by the agencies whose staffing needs it serves. A formal reimbursement of the commission for salaries and expenses involved in running the program has been worked out so that each agency will pay its equitable share of the cost.

Grant 6 Divorces To Quad-Cityans In Circuit Court

Six divorce decrees were granted Quad-City residents during the past week in Third Circuit Court settings in Granite City and Edwardsville.

Thomas E. Fenner, Granite City, charging cruelty, was awarded a divorce from Frances Lee Fenner, who was restored her maiden name of Frances Lee Brown. They were married April 10, 1965, and separated the following month on May 17, according to the decree.

Mrs. Wilma D. Harris of Granite City, named defendant in the original proceeding filed by Harold R. Harris, was awarded a divorce decree on her counterclaim, of desertion, and was granted custody of two children and title to real estate in Miracle Manor II. The decree was granted on grounds of desertion. Charles Polach, Madison, was granted a divorce from Patsy Polach in a decree that confirmed an allegation of desertion. The complaint stated he is now an inmate of Menard prison.

Betty Huett of Granite City was awarded a divorce from Kenneth Huett, St. Louis, on a desertion charge and was granted custody of one child. The court approved a previously arranged property settlement in which the defendant agreed to pay $20 weekly support for the child. He was given title to the family car.

Meet Set Thursday on Cemetery Relocation

A cemetery relocation project involving the remainder of Lawnview Cemetery and a portion of St. Clair county's Pauper Cemetery on State Route 11, between Bunham road and U. S. Route 50 in East St. Louis, will be discussed at a meeting to be held Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at the East St. Louis auditorium of SIU-ES campus.

Next of kin of decedents buried in the remaining portions of the cemeteries have been invited to attend the meeting to hear details of the relocation project and to provide information concerning persons buried in the plots.

Although physical relocation of decedents in the cemeteries is not planned before the latter part of 1966, contacts with the next of kin are necessary in the advance of this date in order to properly coordinate planning and to secure views of relatives.

The meeting is to be sponsored by the Illinois Department of Public Works and Buildings, division of highways, in connection with the construction of an interchange for Federal Interstate Route 64.

A. P. Green Earnings Up For 1st Quarter

At the annual stockholders meeting of the A. P. Green Re-fractories Co. in Mexico, Mo., Friday, President William S. Lowe said the company has had a substantial increase in volume and earnings for the first quarter as compared with the same period in 1965.

Consolidated sales were $15,798,400 versus $14,012,618 in the previous year. Net earnings before tax were $906,307, or 58¢ per common share, versus $607,143, or 40¢ per share, for the first quarter of 1965.

He said the increase in volume was in keeping with the general high level of industrial activity. At the same time, the backlog of unfilled orders has continued to rise, giving an optimistic outlook for the next few months. The firm has a warehouse here.

Following the meeting, the board of directors declared a 25-cent per share dividend on common stock payable May 26, to stockholders of record May 26.

Just A Short Drive

John W. Allen
Southern Illinois University
Nearly everyone likes to go for occasional drives and finds them enjoyable. It is better if one knows something of the stories and objects of interest to be seen along the way, or it is just plain curious. That being true, almost any journey becomes a worthwhile one if the traveler goes leisurely along the way, taking ample time to look about and perhaps to listen.

Such journeys may vary in length of time from a half hour to a week, in distance from a half mile in an old orchard trying to find by the glint of his blue where the indigo bunting has a nest.

On the other hand it may be an unburied two-day flood down the Wabash, from Vincennes to New Harmony, with the night between spent on a friendly sidewalk listening to a silence punctuated with unbroken faint sounds. We tried such a trip and liked it so much so that a ten-day trip down the Ohio and Mississippi from Cincinnati to New Orleans later was made on a five-acre barge tow.

Nearly three days of the return trip followed the Natchez Trace. This time it was without the bags of land pirates that one often finds on the trail toward Nashville. Conveniently located overnight camp grounds made travel more convenient and led to a stock of pleasant memories.

Try Goshen Road
Traveling along the way of the National Road from Cincinnati to the Potomac to Vandalia, Illinois, or along the Wilderness Road into Kentucky or even along our own Goshen Road from Springfield to Edwardsville in Illinois add their pleasant memories and enable one to join in spirit at least, these thousands that moved along the same trails to the west. Known something of the tales spread along the way surely helps.

But all this is not what the writer had in mind to say when this particular column was begun. It was the purpose to suggest a shorter trip or trips for those less ambitious or with less spare time, a journey that could be made in a day, or perhaps rushed over in half that time. It might be well to outline a typical journey.

The first one that comes to mind, perhaps because it is so near at hand, begins at nearby Murphysboro and ends there on the same day. Since a journey must begin at some particular place, "X" marks the spot" place, this one begins at a stone marker beside the railroad just south of the G-40 railway station at Murphysboro. This stone marks the birthplace of John A. Logan, legendary Civil War figure from Egypt. A bronze statue on the high school grounds a few blocks to the west of the stone marker also pays tribute to a distinguished son of southern Illinois. Three miles west of Murphysboro and south of Illinois 13 there is a row of dunned charcoal ovens. In the heyday of the hobo ovens, when not serving their intended purpose to make charcoal, were used as the center of a "jungle" for that wandering fraternity.

Flowing Salt Spring
For the past several years they have been busy with making charcoal and beside, hobo to inhabit a jungle seem to have vanished. Should one turn from Illinois 13 and stop at the ovens he may leave his car there and walk west along the railway track. Almost immediately on the left is the site where early white men found a flowing salt spring.

In 1816 Conrad Will, a "Pennsylvania Dutchman," came here to establish the Muddy Saline lead in the establishment of Jackson county and of the state of Illinois whose first constituent he helped to write. He also practiced medicine, had a tan yard, was actively engaged in politics, and in fact he easily qualified as a leading citizen of the new state whose early course he had done much to shape. His new residence, an unmarked grave on the hill-top north of where vanished Brownsville once stood. If a visitor to the old town site looks about carefully, he will see an occasional sunken spot that once was a cistern or cellar. Spots littered with rubble show where early houses stood.

Interesting and diverting as Brownsville is, however, we continue west along Illinois 13 to a roadside lookout on the east side of Kincaid valley. From this vantage point one looks sharply down upon Kincaid Creek bridge that is at about the same spot where a ferry crossed the stream, 150 years ago. It was at the place where Kincaid Big Muddy River about a quarter of a mile below the bridge that William Boone loaded a flatboat in December, 1811, and departed for New Orleans, just in time to be on the river during the New Madrid earthquake, of late December of 1811 and early January of 1812.

Very soon after crossing Kincaid a sign points south to Sand Ridge where Boone (He spelled the name without a final 'e') settled and opened a farm shortly after 1800. It was here that he raised a company of Rangers for service in the war of 1812.

Indian Reservation
An Indian reservation a half-mile wide and two miles long adjoined the village on the east was the last Illinois home of the five miserable remnants of the Illinois tribes that came to live for a time before departing upon their journey of a man named Worthen for the west and oblivion.

Sand Ridge remained an important village of Jackson county for many years, having a busy cotton gin until after Civil War times. Continuing west from Sand Ridge village on the gravel road that parallels the railway the visitor reaches Illinois 3 and goes south to the Gorham spur. Turning right on the Gorham

License Suspensions For 5 Area Motorists

Driver license suspensions were ruled last week for five Quad City area motorists for reason of three traffic violations. The office of Secretary of State Paul Powell handed down the suspensions for: Jimmy D. Casle, 2118 Missouri avenue; Randall L. Shields, 2000 Davenport street; William C. Joplin, 2040 Hildebrandt avenue, Madison; William J. Serini, 1231 1/2 street, East Madison, and Earl T. Smith, 213 St. Clair avenue.

School Crossing Guards Seeking Pay Increase

Granite City council members will be called upon tonight to decide on a 32-day pay boost requested by the 13 school crossing guards. The guards' pay now is $6-per-day for duty at morning, noon and afternoon hours. The session will begin at 8 p.m. and is the last of the current fiscal year. A shorter 2½-page agenda was mailed to the aldermen late last week.

side road the careful looker will note that he is going through a cut in a low Indian mound into the old town site looks about three names. First it was Leo Rock, then Fordyce, and now is Gorham. The town now clusters about a railway station, an abandoned large site and a few interesting old buildings that look like they could tell stories.

A gravel road leading south from the west side of town takes the explorer to the railway track at the foot of the bluff that is north end of Big Hill where a path may be followed a short way through the woods to visit one of the most interesting group of Indian Survivals in the state. Any visitor will have a tendency to stop, look, and wonder.

If the traveler drives west along the roadway leading toward the Mississippi he will find the site of the "White House," home of Joseph Duncan, early state senator from Johnson county who introduced the legislation that began the free public school system in Illinois.

Duncan later moved to a northern county and was elected governor of the state. Between the site of Duncan's White House and Gorham a physician brother of Duncan operated a grist mill on Running Slough while practicing medicine.

We are now 15 miles from the starting point of what was planned to be a little drive and are out of Quad City. Next week another column can begin there. Another ten miles, with numerous stops along the way to see other interesting sites will land the traveler in Grand Tower. It is hoped at the proper time enjoying a delightful meal at a unique eating place.

Calling All Home Makers

By AARON FREDMAN
WHAT DO CUSTOMERS WANT?

A national survey company interviewed many recently married women and found that they want and what they hope to find when they walk into a furniture store.

We thought you'd be interested in these women's answers. Here are the results:
1. Most women want to see a large, well-displayed selection of attractive furniture.
2. They want to be served by salespeople who are helpful and courteous.
3. They want to deal with a merchant who has earned a reputation for fair dealing and good service.

4. They would like to find a good selection of the advertised items and to find them exactly as advertised and illustrated.

5. They want to be served by neat looking salespeople in a clean, neat looking store.
6. They like to see furniture in complete room settings and correlated groupings, shown with all of the proper accessories whenever possible.
7. They want to deal with a salesman who is advising them honestly and truthfully.

Incidentally, I believe you will find all these qualities in our store. We invite you to come in and browse around with no obligation . . . and see for yourself.

Tiger Hitters Tee Off To Down Warriors 6-2

The Warriors' conference mark slipped to 2-4 Thursday at Edwardsville when the SWC leaders rallied to snap a three-run home run in what otherwise was a fairly close contest. Granite City matched the Tigers in the hit department, and each team made only one error.

"I think it was our best game of the season," coach Gale Garbe commented in speaking of the Warriors' tight defensive play and respectable hitting. "There's just not much you can do when the other team is hitting the ball out of the park," he said.

The Warriors felt the impact of the Tigers' long ball in the bottom of the first, when, after Don Tokas walked and Rick Lynn singled, shortstop Mike Ingram hit the first Edwardsville homer. Catcher Ben Ricketts added his round trip blast and the league leaders led 4-0.

Granite City had a threat going in the top of the second when Charlie Collins singled, Fred Huff was safe on a fielder's choice and Harold Vick singled. With runners on first and second, Larry Ripka struck out the first Warrior run but this was as far as things progressed.

The Warriors' real threat came in the third inning. Carl Benson singled following a walk to Bill Cox. After the next two Granite City batters struck out, catcher Fred Hoffman singled Cox home, leaving runners on first and third. Again the inning sputtered out when Carl Benson was trapped off third base.

Edwardsville players proved they had the combination on Jim Rains in the fifth when they ran out the Tigers again.

draw a base on balls and Rick Lynn led off for the third Tiger home run and the final two tallies for Edwardsville.

Roxana Edges Past Prather In 7-6 Game

Prather's Braves, down 5-1 going into the fifth against Roxana Thursday on the SWC leaders' diamond, stormed back to overcome costly errors, tying the game in the fifth and adding a run in the sixth, but it wasn't quite enough. The Shells whacked out two doubles after a pair of walks in their sixth inning.

Catcher Roger Belshie was hit by a pitch in two runs while Mike McGovern also garnered a pair of RBIs to pace the losing cause.

Belshie's hits came in the first, when he singled to load the bases with the Braves scoring once, and in the fifth-inning upstroke.

A pair of walks, a fielder's choice and Belshie's single started the wild inning. A passed ball by the catcher allowed another run and loaded the bases, with McGovern then hammering in the two RBIs. Belshie drove home Jerry Monahan, who had walked, and later scored in the sixth.

Rain-Dampened Warriors Defeated 4-1 by Kahoks

Wet weather, costly bobbles and generally rocky play continued to plague the Warriors Friday as the Kahoks downed Granite City on the Warrior diamond 4-1. On top of everything else, coach Joe Fedora lost the only set of keys to his auto.

"We're not alibing," Fedora said, in commenting on the game. "The boys were playing, but these constant rainouts really ruin our pitching rotation and probably have a lot to do with the way the boys are going."

The Warriors, washed out of their Saturday schedule in part of a deluge of rainouts for the second time this season, are set to face Assumption today at the Granite City diamond.

The Kahoks went after the Warriors in the first inning Friday with a single, fielder's choice and an error for a run. Pitcher Tom Calzo, who bats fourth, drove home a second run. A pair of singles surrounding Al Calzo fielder's choice led to the fourth, drove home a second run. Calzo, hardly ever off the field in the game, was safe on an error in the fifth and scored on a bloomed single and still an error fielding bobbles.

The Warriors, tamed by Calzo's nine-strikeout performance until their half of the sixth, got to him for a walk but Calzo struck out two more hitters before another walk set things up for Harold Vick's run-scoring single.

GCHS Golfers Conquer Mud, Marquette

Washed out of their scheduled match with Lebanon and Alton at the Army Depot course earlier last week, the Granite City Warriors golf team found they going pretty soggy at the Rock Springs course in Alton Thursday but defeated Marquette by five strokes.

"The course was muddy," Coach Harry Lane explained, "and the grass was pretty soft. Everybody played a long game, so it must have been the conditions. The game was pretty hot. Dick Koser, making his debut with the Warriors, played in two birdies and played well though carrying the Warrior's next to highest total. Gary Sturdivant contributed the only other Warrior birdie and had the low Granite City score with a 43.

GRANITE CITY 177-Jack Brisky 44, Gary Sturdivant 43, Chip Green 44, Dick Koser 46.

MARQUETTE 185-Mike McClash 42, Dave Dvorchak 46, Mike Dandaville 51, Paul Sprengnigel 41.

Roxana Shells Shell Madison In 5-0 Net Win

The Madison Trojans were shelled by the Roxana Shells in court action Thursday at Roxana when they were shut out 5-0 in a match shortened to one doubles.

Playing four singles, the Shells won handily as Madison's Jim Puckale lost to Larry Colby 1-6, 0-6, Tom Moslander went down less easily to Terry Dietzel 3-6, 5-7, John Carlson was beaten by Terry Judson 1-6, 5-6 and Dennis Holt was defeated by Bill Striegel 1-6, 1-6.

The doubles, Charles Horowitz and Ken Blatner lost to Bill Striegel and Allan Winger 0-6, 2-6.

The Trojans were to make up another match with Roxana today but will not due to a Roxana schedule conflict. On Tuesday, the Madison netters will visit Bethalto.

Eagles Competing in 2 State Bowling Meets

Two teams composed of six men each from the Granite City Eagles bowling team competed in the Eagles state bowling tournament at Cicero, Ill. last week. The tournament will continue until the second week in May.

The Eagles took their No. 1 and No. 2 teams to the Cicero event and the No. 1 team had a seventh-place mark when they returned, with competition still to run for three weeks.

Both teams in the state tournament action and possibly another team from the Eagles here will journey to the Southern Illinois Eagles Zone Three bowling rally at Benton over the April 30 weekend in a tournament held in conjunction with the state affair.

VIC BUEHLER
Former Warrior Catcher Hitting .333 with ISU

Buehler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Buehler, 2000 Madison avenue, whose baseball background includes local Khoury League activity and prep competition with the Warriors, is having an excellent season with the Illinois State University baseball team, where the right-handed-batting catcher has a .333 average.

Buehler's value to the team and his diamond achievements have been the subject of an article in the Normal, Ill. newspaper and his clutch hitting has contributed to the team's record of 12 wins out of the first 13 games on the ISU schedule. He is the ISU catcher.

Braves Soggy as Rains Wipe Out All Games

Rain and wet grounds have taken a toll on the baseball schedule of coach John Tomcoff's Coolidge junior high school Braves this season, forcing considerable schedule reshuffling as the team begins to wonder if it will play at all this year.

The Braves will play a game washed out April 20 at Roxana at the Shell's diamond Thursday. A rainout at Coolidge April 18 will be made up on May 3 when the Braves entertain Cahokia again. An April 15 game at Belleville will be made up on May 3 and a game washed out on the Coolidge diamond Thursday will be played May 6.

Former GC Netters on College Tennis Squad

Yance Hancock and Dennis Zertlin, who prepped in tennis at Granite City, are top sophomore performers on the Illinois State University squad this spring.

Hancock, a three-year tennis letterman for the Warriors and a state doubles competitor, played in the doubles at Cowan-Harman one year and doubles for two years. Zertlin, who always competed in doubles at Granite City high school, lettered two years while playing for the Warriors.

Coolidge Net Squad Zeros Roxana 5-0

Roxana Shells coach Terry Durham's tactic of switching his No. 1 and No. 2 singles men didn't prove out Friday when coach Bob Moske's Braves net team shut out their familiar opponents 5-0 on the Coolidge courts.

Moske explained that switching players around makes for more interesting competition and allows the boys to get in more time on the courts.

The Braves, who face Roxana four times this season, have scheduled a nine-match meet with the Shells on May 12. "This is something coach Durham and I worked out," Moske explained, "we'll play six singles and three doubles. I even plan to get my seventh and eighth graders into action so they'll know what we have coming up next year."

Results:
SINGLES - VanBuskirk over Tiller 6-0, 6-0; Green over Smith 5-1, 6-3; Nagy over Lavel, 6-1, 6-1.

A new 9.8 fishing Merc silent pushes you toward your favorite fishing spot. For '66, new quietness begins with a new cowl, mounted to an aluminum frame to cut sound and vibration. New rubber seals and quieter exhaust relief muffle, too. And what's left of the sound is blown out the Jet-Prop exhaust, deep under water—where it is dispersed in the propeller slipstream. When it's time to slow down, just twist the throttle grip on the tiller handle to give less gas. And you don't have to worry much about hidden obstructions. The curved Glide-Angle design slides your Mercury right over them (over fishing lines, too). When you want to slip into a tight spot—where the fish always seem to hide—use the gearshift (forward, neutral, reverse) for easy maneuvering. Rains Cancel Racing Events

Rains over the weekend washed out the program at the Tri-City Speedway, which was to have held its second date after a successful opening night last week.

Rains also took a toll on three opening day programs yesterday as the Pacific Drag Strip, Lake Hill Speedway and Wentville Speedway attempted to get their 1966 schedules under way.

In one of the only area week-end events that escaped the rains, Webb Spalding of Granite City won the modified feature and took a quick time of 12.95 at the Springfield, Ill., Speedway.

GC Has Troubles In Doubles With Tiger Netters

The Warrior tennis team edged past Edwardsville Thursday 3-2. Their conference nemesis, the Belleville Maroons, who gave the Warriors their only SWC defeat April 4 in a 3-1 match, are now the target Dick Harrison's players are pointing for.

Granite City, 9-1 overall and scheduled for a real warmup Tuesday with Country Day, whom they have never defeated in three years, will play Belleville May 18 in what could decide the conference net championship. "Belleville is strong, where we're strong," Coach Harrison commented, "and they're pretty evenly matched with Edwardsville, too. This is why we're going around and around." Harrison remarked in commenting on the close race between the three teams.

The Warriors are currently 7-1 in conference play. Harry Harris and Louis Mehl were beaten by Greg Mudge and Brent Wolford 4-6, 1-6 and Jeff Parmenter and Alan Williams were defeated by Mark Laaser and David Mindrup 4-6, 8-10.

But the Warriors ran into problems in doubles, where Bill Harris and Louis Mehl were beaten by Greg Mudge and Brent Wolford 4-6, 1-6 and Jeff Parmenter and Alan Williams were defeated by Mark Laaser and David Mindrup 4-6, 8-10.

Edwardsville Past Prather In 8 Innings

The pitching performance of Prather junior high's Larry Pirtle, who went all the way while striking out 13 Edwardsville batters, wasn't quite enough to keep the Tigers from getting by the Chiefs 5-3 in extra innings here Thursday.

The Chiefs started strongly with Roger Law's single figuring prominently in the two-run first inning. They added their third run in the second when Roger Belche doubled in Bobby Canada, who had stolen second after walking.

Prather threatened in the sixth with runners on first and second and one out, only to have two batters fan. Mike McGovern's single went to waste.

The Chiefs started the seventh with Claude Goria's single but were unable to unlock the score. Edwardsville had scored a run in the first and two more in the third, and added two in the top of the eighth.

Mitchell Wins in 12 As Rain Hits League
A Mitchell A.C. behind the steady route-going hurling of John Corrie and some fine clutch hitting, edged Polish American in the top of the twelfth Sunday 5-3.

Both clubs out-smarted the weather that found rain and wet grounds sending all the other inter-city League contests down the drain. The game was played at East St. Louis.

Starting Tony Root, 3-for-5 with two doubles, and first baseman Larry Corey, also netting two doubles in going 2-for-5, kept Polish American on the ropes in the long extra-inning affair.

After a sacrifice fly scored Mitchell's initial run in the fifth, a walk, a fielder's choice and error netted another tally in the eighth and Mary Brokaw immediately singled in Mitchell's third run, tying the game at 3-3. East St. Louis did all its scoring in the second inning.

In the top of the twelfth, after Corrie's eight-strikeout one-way performance had tamed the Polish Americans, except for the one upspring, Corey's second double and Larry Miller's bunt.

Madison No-Hit Game Goes For Naught Friday

If there's anything worse than losing a no-hitter Madison's Tom Williams and Greg Wyszak would like to know what it is after holding Bethalto hitless at Madison Friday only to lose 2-0 as a result of three walks, an error and a wild pitch.

Williams, who struck out nine during his five-inning stint and walked six, met his downfall in the fourth when he walked three. An error by the Trojans' first baseman sent one Eagle home and Williams wild-pitched the other Bethalto run in.

Wyszak, coming in the sixth, struck out the side and held Bethalto from there on. But the Trojans could do no better than load the bases in the seventh after two were out. The Eagles' Weineke gave up only two hits in the well pitched contest.

Warriors Nearly Grab Third In Mattoon Meet

The Warriors, despite having to hitchhike the last 20 miles into Mattoon Saturday for the Mattoon relay after their bus suffered a broken drive shaft, came out of the event with a respectable 41 points, just one point behind third-place Springfield Fetshans.

"Our boys actually led the meet all day," coach Jim Morrison explained, "but we just simply ran out of personnel."

Morrison, on top of everything else during the frantic weekend, is about to become a father.

Dwain Bridges' 12' 6" pole vault and John Harper's 8' 10 1/2" high jump led the way for Morrison's athletes who might also have taken the 880-yard relay except for having been run off the track in the wild event.

Dalton Gives Details On 'Family Service'

Dalton's topic was "Family Service—Designed for the Times."

Dalton said that Family Service Agencies constantly need to be reviewing their programs to be sure that these programs continue to meet the new needs in the communities which they serve.

"There are two trends today that are foremost in our country. The first is a national commitment to meet the needs of the problems of our disadvantaged population. The second is the involvement of the volunteer in the work of bringing the great society to all of our citizens," Dalton added.

The Family Service Agency of Southwestern Illinois serves the Quad-Cities area and is financed by the Tri-Cities Area Foundation. The agency also receives support from three other United Funds in the southwestern Illinois area.

State Municipal Groups Backing Madison County in Appeal of Railroad Tax Cases

Petition, urging the United Supreme Court to accept the long-embattled Madison county railroad tax assessment case are to be filed with the court soon by the Illinois Municipal League, the Illinois Association of School Boards and Sangamon county, it was learned by the Press-Record.

According to Burton Bernard, Granite City attorney and former special assistant state's attorney in charge of the railroad cases, the three organizations are intervening "for the public good" because of the importance of the case and the eventual court ruling that will be established as precedent for such cases.

Bernard said the petitions in behalf of the Illinois Municipal League and the Illinois Association of School Boards will be filed by William Giffon, Springfield attorney who represents the two organizations. The petition for Sangamon county state's attorney's office.

The high court has not yet ruled whether it will accept Madison county's appeal of an Illinois Supreme Court ruling which reversed Circuit Judge James O. Monroe of Madison county, who in August, 1964, upheld Madison county in its fight against railroad claims that they had been assessed at 100 percent of full cash value.

Bernard said that Sangamon county has a series of approximately 12 cases involving $300,000 in protested taxes similar to the cases now on appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court. Bernard pointed out that Cook county also has about $30 million dollars worth of suits of the same nature pending, but so far has made no effort to intervene to aid Madison county.

Favored Madison County

The Madison county railroad cases, involving protested assessments for the 1957 through 1960 tax years, were heard in the Third Circuit court in Edwardsville early in 1964. In August of that year Judge Monroe ruled principally in favor of Madison county, deeming the railroads' pleas that they had been assessed at 100% full cash value and therefore were entitled to about $2 million dollars in tax refunds. The Illinois Supreme Court, on an appeal by the railroads, reversed Judge Monroe.

Since most of the $2 million dollars is in taxes due the school districts, Madison county refused to finance further court action and the school districts pooled resources to hire Burton as a special attorney, to carry the fight to the U. S. Supreme Court. Petitions asking the court to hear the case were filed several months ago.

A ruling by the high court would establish precedent that would be used as basis of settling future suits of a like nature. For this reason the municipal league and Illinois school board group is particularly interested in the outcome of the case.

Principal point of the railroad cases is their contention of a 100% assessment of railroad property while residential taxpayers were assessed on a 60% to 65% ratio. The railroad contended this was discrimination and that they were entitled to a substantial refund of taxes for the five-year period. Taxes for that period were paid under protest and the $2 million dollars is being held in escrow.

Telephone Firm May Issue New Debentures

Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. directors have tentatively approved plans for a $150,000,000 debenture issue to repay costs of constructing telephone facilities in its six-state area, which includes the Quad-Cities, it was announced Saturday.

The firm spent $362 million last year to extend and improve telephone service, including $90 million in the Missouri-Illinois section, and plans to spend $371 million this year. The debentures, first since a $100 million issue in 1962, would be sold in competitive bidding about June 22.

GC Barber Missed by A Hair in TV Contest

Emerald Dawes, past president of the Granite City boosters and well-known local barber, will likely never see a closer shave than the near-miss he experienced last week when a $400 color television set eluded him.

Dawes, involved in a contest for the set at a Barber-Rama workshop in St. Louis, had left early in order to supervise the practice session he had scheduled for the Matthews Chevrolet little league team he manages.

"I was afraid those boys would be running all over the park, and I had set up the practice session," Dawes said, "so I left the workshop at 4 p.m., and I was chosen winner an hour later. It was a $400 practice session," Dawes said when notified of his misfortune, "but now I see the humor in it, too," he added, though still evidencing a degree of mixed emotions.

Corn Planting Study

Two-year studies on the effect of time of planting on the response to nitrogen fertilizers at the DeKalb Agronomy Research Center show that planting done in late April or early May has increased yields.

The increase for applied nitrogen fertilizers was greater when the corn was planted early.

The yields were higher when corn was planted early, requiring more nitrogen to produce these yields. The crop made the greater part of its growth when the soils were cool, and the rate of mineralization—the change to available nitrogen—or soil nitrogen was less when the corn was planted early than in the late plantings, especially the June plantings. Plantings ranged from May 4 to June 4.

The three varieties in the test differed in their use of nitrogen to produce higher yields. The highest yield came from a full-season hybrid planted on May 4. The hybrid received 160 pounds of N. A full-season hybrid receiving 80 pounds of N, also out-yielded medium- and early-maturing hybrids, regardless of date of planting or N applied.

Future Hybrids

Future corn hybrids will probably be planted earlier, at higher rates and in narrower rows than today's. University of Illinois extension agronomist W. D. Pardee says the new hybrids are almost certain to be more susceptible to late lodging but more resistant to leaf blight than the older ones.

Pardee believes that some new hybrids may have a higher oil content and possibly higher quality protein than these now being planted.

With high fertility and optimum management, new hybrids will be planted at 20 to 24 thousand plants per acre. Hybrids of the past were barren or lodged at populations above 16 thousand plants per acre.

Research on row width and plant distribution shows that, as plant populations increase, narrower rows will add a few bushels to the yield.

Farmers can look forward to better and more efficient corn hybrids. Instead of today's single-cross hybrids, future hybrids may be special crosses or three-way crosses. They will be less uniform than the single-cross, but higher yielding.

Two new out varieties—Brave and Clintland 64—like real winners if they are planted early this spring.

Brave holds the highest five-year average yield of any variety in the Brownstown trials. Seed supplies are available this spring.

Clintland 64 is the latest version of an outstanding series of out varieties. Seed is available for general planting this spring.

Newton remained the most popular variety in Illinois last year, but it slipped to 37% of the total acreage. Newton will continue its gradual decline, although it may still be the most popular variety for several years.

Newcomers like Brave and Clintland 64 should increase in popularity as seed supplies become generally available.

Prospects for comparatively good prices for beef cattle and hogs for at least most of 1966 are encouraging, stated speakers at a recent county livestock marketing meeting.

The speakers were C. R. Smith, director of public relations of the RETIRING from his job as master mechanic at Union Starch & Refining Co., after 43 years service, is Robert L. Keithley, vice-president of personnel; Dempster; and Robert L. Stott, plant manager.

Retires at Union Starch After 43 Years Service

Robert L. Dempster, 2430 Edison avenue, will leave Union Starch & Refining Co. this week to begin his retirement after 43 years of continuous service as an employee of the company. The retirement officially becomes effective June 30 upon completion of accumulated leave.

Working colleagues and friends of Mr. Dempster honored his last week with a retirement party in St. Louis. It was the second time that Dempster has been given special honors by the company. In 1958 he received the distinguished Service Award, bestowed for outstanding employee service.

Russell Stumpe, director of engineering, was master of ceremonies at the affair. He introduced Porter Marcus, who recalled for the audience stories of "how things used to be done at the plant."

Dempster, in response, remarked that the old days were fine, but that he stands with "progress and the sharp, keen boys management gives us to work with these days."

"During the dinner a congratulatory wire was received from Union Starch President T. R. Reed, who is in Europe on business. After reading the wire, Glen F. Keithley, vice-president of personnel, remarked that Dempster represents "an almost vanishing breed, the compulsive worker whose life and pride are dedicated with joy to the work he is doing."

Dempster said he has made no definite retirement plans. Dempster joined the starch plant on Nov. 16, 1922, as a utilities supervisor, and retired as one of the plant's two master mechanics.

Peace Corp Will Hold Tests for Jobs May 14

Quad-City residents will have an opportunity to take a placement test for duty in the Peace Corps to be conducted Saturday, May 14, in room 414 of the federal building, 750 Missouri avenue, at 9 a.m.

The test requires no preparation and is non-competitive. It is to measure the ability to learn a language and general aptitude rather than level of education and achievement.

An application form, more vital than the placement test itself, can be obtained from local post offices or from the Peace Corp in Washington, D. C., and must be filled out and presented to the test supervisor before taking the May 14 examination.

Old World Favorite Adds Glamor to Menus

Today's homemakers are now learning what their great-grandmothers knew about the use of sour cream in both cooked and uncooked foods.

University of Illinois foods scientist S. L. Tuckey reports that only in the past six years have the dairy industry and consumers become aware of the desirable characteristics and adaptability of cultured cream dressing. In addition to its pleasing flavor and aroma, dairy sour cream has the added appeal of fewer calories than mayonnaise, salad oil or French dressing.

Tuckey explains that dairy sour cream is 18% fat sweet cream which milk solids are added to increase protein content. After pasteurization and homogenization, the cream is cultured or soured by special strains of lactic acid-producing micro-organisms.

The resulting product is thick and smooth, creamy-white in color and has a delicately acid flavor. Many homemakers wonder if cultured sour cream can be made at home. Tuckey says that the processes of heat treatment, homogenization and souring under controlled conditions of commercial production cannot be duplicated by the homemaker. Cream soured with vinegar or lemon juice is no substitute for the commercial product.

Cultured cream dressing is a calorie bargain, since it contains only about one-fourth as many calories per serving as mayonnaise and about one-half as many calories as French dressing.

Much more adaptable than other dressings, commercial sour cream can be used in appetizers and dips, soups, salads and desserts. Although it is considered a glamor ingredient in today's main dishes, it has added richness and goodness to many Old World recipes for centuries.

Alter Pattern, Then Cut Fabric
If you are having difficulty fitting the garments you make, check your procedure. Some fitting problems cannot be solved after the fabric has been cut.

necessary adjustments must be made in the paper pattern. Select a pattern in the figure type, size and pattern brand best suited to your figure. Today you can choose from a wide variety of commercial patterns. Take time to make the best possible selection.

After you have made your decision, determine what alterations if any, will be needed. Although there is no one way to alter a pattern or to correct many fitting problems, there are general rules, methods and techniques.

If you need help with pattern alterations or with other sewing problems, send for the University of Illinois Publication, "The Principles of Fitting," available at the Home Adviser's Office.

Extension clothing specialist Esther Siemen gives basic information on pattern selection and alteration and garment construction. She has also included suggestions for selecting and altering ready-to-wear garments.

PHYLIS BELL First Attendant

140, outside Alton, about 3:20 a.m. Sunday.

Whistle told county authorities an auto with four young men was seen speed off the parking lot a short time before the theft was discovered. Whistle said he had been a patient at the park but had played at the club until 2 a.m.

SANDRA CARLIE Second Attendant

An undetermined amount of cash was taken from a cash register by two bandits who entered the Kootenai Station near 200 south of Madison about 4:15 a.m. today.

The attendant, Wayne Gray, whose address was not obtained by deputies, was forced to flee the station by one of the armed bandits and then to open his head as he fled. He went to a plant to notify the sheriff's office.

Gray said he was in the station building when the bandits entered, one armed with a pistol.

"They told me to open the cash register and then to open the door to the storeroom."

The attendant was ordered into the storeroom and forced open drawers which were unaccounted by the pair in a search for money.

An unsuccessful search, they forced Gray to go outside and told him to run. It was then the shot was fired over his head.

In addition to the unknown amount of money, the bandits also took an adding machine.

Gray said he was wearing six feet tall and weighed about 165 pounds. One was wearing a gray and blue jeans and a brown sport coat and a yellow sweater, he said in giving partial descriptions.

Another bandit-vandalism caused $100 damage to concession stand equipment at the Tri-City Speedway, 5100 Nantux road.

The owners, Elvin Doolin and Orville Farless, told county authorities the stand was entered after 7:30 p.m. Saturday. A window had been pried open.

The damage was to drink and coffee dispensing machines and to miscellaneous equipment inside the stand. Hot dogs and french fried potatoes were scattered about the floor. An attempt also was made to force entry.

Car Found in River

The auto of Raymond Nelson, 3211 J Avenue, stolen last Tuesday from the Nantux Village shopping center, lot, was found partially submerged in the Mississippi River off a dirt road on Chouteau Island.

Deputy sheriffs said the auto apparently had been pushed into the river. The radio had been stolen and all windows had been smashed.

A classroom window that had been broken and replaced Friday was removed over the weekend by thieves or vandals who smashed the pane of glass but apparently did not enter the building. The report was made to police yesterday afternoon by the custodian.

Four slipper-type burglar alarms were stolen from the home of Mrs. Mary Meyer, 1608 Third street, Madison, reported to Granite City police. The theft occurred while the car was parked at 16th street and Madison avenue.

A wallet containing $15 was lost at the YMCA Friday evening by Mike McMillan, 14, of 2840 State street. The wallet later was located but the money was missing.
